ESCAPED PROSECUTION IN WATERS OF HARBOR

The police this forenoon received the startling information that the Japanese who cut a fellow countryman's throat at Ewa about a week ago had been found dead this morning in the waters of Pearl Harbor near Ala.

The dastardly deed for which the Japanese was wanted was committed a little over a week ago, at Ewa. The culprit, who had been hanging around the plantation for some time, one night cut the throat of a Japanese laborer working on the plantation. The men were sleeping in the same room. The screams of the wounded man brought assistance, but his assailant escaped.

All possible efforts were immediately made to locate him. Manager Renton lent the police a large force of men, who scoured the surrounding canals but no trace was found of the man. This morning the dead body was found in Pearl Harbor. The dead man wore a pair of white trousers and had an old sack over his shoulders. This tallies exactly with the description of the man's appearance at the time of his escape.

The Japanese who was injured was brought to Honolulu Sunday. He is still suffering from the effects of his terrible wound.

Sleepers made of earthenware are used on some of the railroads in Japan.

Finished the House and again Mr. Kumalae refused.

Mr. Kalama finally moved to take a recess until 2 o'clock, saying that he would guarantee to find out the names of all the officials who had been acting in the manner suggested.

Mr. Harris made reply that he wanted the votes in the House.

Mr. Harris again asked that the name of the official in question be fur-

WILCOX'S BIG SURPRISE

Judge Luther Wilcox this morning sprang an effective surprise on the police officials and his many friends by departing in the Alameda for San Francisco. The Judge had given no intimation of his intention before this morning, when he telephoned to the police station that he would not be there to hold court.

It appears that Judge Wilcox's brother, G. N. Wilcox, was going to the Coast in the Alameda on a flying business trip, intending to return to the islands on the return of that vessel. He intended to have a nephew accompany him, but at the last minute the nephew was prevented from going. He then invited his brother, the Judge, to take the trip. The Judge decided that the sea trip would be a good thing for his health and when the Alameda left he was among her passengers.

Judge Dickey occupied the bench in the Police Court this morning.

WATTERSON THROWS HOT SHOT.

Louisville, Ky., March 22.—Henry Watterson has taken note of the entertainment by the New York four hundred of a negro woman, Aida Evern Walker. The Courier-Journal's editor recalls the incident of the colored woman, a member of a theatrical company, being engaged to do the cake walk at a swell function, and continues: "They took such a liking to her that the line of distinction was quickly obliterated, the host leading the queen of midnight through the giddy mazes of the dance and the lily white belles of the court circle making her at home and inviting her to other entertainments, booked then and there and pledged in flacons of flowing champagne."

"The Courier Journal is asked by several of its esteemed contemporaries for an expression on this new departure. It is not, we take leave parenthetically to remark, altogether a new departure. Several of the swells named as of those present are known to have acted within their rights. If questioned, these might trace their own origin back to the rich, red blood of Ethiopia, and in some cases not very far back, either, and they did but honor their race in honoring the dusky representative of the vaudeville stage."

THE BUSINESS MAN'S HANDY INDEX, published in the Saturday Bulletin and the Weekly Edition, gives a concise and complete resume of all legal notices, calls for tenders, judgments, building permits and real estate transactions. Evening Bulletin, 75 cents per month. Weekly Bulletin, $1 per year.
